

1825 – 2025

200 Years of St. Margaret of Scotland Parish

PILGRIMS OF HOPE

Past, Present, and Future

Sunday, October 12

9:30 am: Mass of Thanksgiving. Celebrating the 200th anniversary of St. Margaret of Scotland Parish, Broad Cove. Fr. Danny MacLennan presiding. Refreshments to follow after Mass.

Monday, October 13

2:00 - 4:00 pm: St. Margaret's Church open for confession and silent prayer.

Tuesday, October 14

2:00 pm: Mass. Fr. Daniel Tshimbalanga presiding. Church will be open for confession, silent prayer, and spiritual reflection until 4:00 pm following Mass.

6:30 pm: Dr. Peter Ludlow of Acadia University will make a presentation on the history of the church in the community, "Faith Through the Eyes of the Parish: 200 Years at St. Margaret of Scotland."

Wednesday, October 15

2:00 pm: Mass. Fr. Daniel Tshimbalanga presiding. Church will be open for confession, silent prayer, and spiritual reflection until 4:00 pm following Mass.

2:00 - 4:00 pm: Food drive in support of the food bank; please bring non-perishables or cash donations.

Thursday, October 16

2:00 pm: Gaelic Mass. Fr. David Rankin presiding. Church will be open for confession, silent prayer, and spiritual reflection until 4:00 pm following Mass. Refreshments to follow Mass.

Friday, October 17

12:00 pm: Celebratory Anniversary Day Mass. Fr. Danny MacLennan presiding. Lunch and unveiling of commemorative plaque to follow after Mass.

Join us for a week of friendship, prayer, and celebration.